SOUTHERN LADIES FESTIVAL.

Preparations Made for an Enjoyable Occasion at W. L. I. Armory. The arrangements for the May festivals, to given by the Southern ladies residing in the city, at the Washington Light In-fantry Armory, Tuesday and Wednesday next, for the benefit of the Southern Memorial Hall, are complete.

The place of erection is to be decided June 30, at Richmond. It will begin with a luncheon on Tuesday, from 12 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, which is to be repeated on Wednesday at the same hours. There is to be screed in addition to strawberries and cream, Marshall Hall clam chowder, donated by Capt. L. L. Blake; also some of the finest delicacies from the celebrated restaurant of Mr. George W. Harvey.

During each evening an attractive pro-ram will be presented, and Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, newly appointed consul general to Havana, is expected to bonor the occasion with his presence, and probably make an address. The novelty of a young ladies ministrel performance is to be one of the best features of the entertainments; besides a selection by Hon. Ed B. Hay, there is to be fancy dancing by the most select pupils of Prof. Carnani's dancing acade chroeder's orchestra. The lady manager: senrouers sorenestra. The lady managers are Mrs. J. T. ## VICTORIOUS FORT MYER

Gay Scene at the Polo Match With Chevy Chase Club.

A Bicycle Party to Overlook Inn-A Governor.

The game of polo at Chevy Chose yes-terday afternoon, between the Fort Myer Chase Club teams, was a and Chevy Chase Glub teams, was a spirited exhibition of line riding and first rate playing.

The Army was victorious, the yellow satin badge worn by the gallant troopers shining in the thick of every tangle of pontes, maffets and men, and triumphing easily. The scene at the field was fine. Society in its most elegant fraps applauded the sportsmen, and the women nonored the occasion by wearing their prettiest gowns General Miles, who was on horsebock, rode here and there to command a new movement of the players as they worked their way from goal to goal, their way from goal-to goal.

Among those present were Mrs, and Miss Miles, Mr and Mrs. Covarrabias, of the Mexican legation; Miss Fuller, Capt. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. McAdoo. Lieut, Niblack, Mrs. Elocksen. Miss Porter, the Misses Pauncefote, Count Vinci, Miss Keuts Rogers, Mr. Elkins, Miss Wallack, Miss Britton, Mr. Jack Buidle, Mr. O'Beirne, and many others.
